Armed with Righteousness Compilation

To live during these great days of destiny, we must be armed with righteousness and the power of God. As disciples of Christ, the spiritual war that is raging to claim our hearts and souls requires nothing less than our best efforts. Armed in righteousness, we are able to feel the power and promise of our Heavenly Father. We see more clearly, sense more deeply our identity as daughters of God, and realize in greater measure the purposes we are accomplishing on earth. In this collection of addresses from the 2012 BYU Women's Conference, chapters by Elder Neil L. Anderson and his wife, Kathy Anderson, Elaine Dalton, Ann M. Dibb, Jane Clayson Johnson, Sandra Rogers, S. Michael Wilcox, Ruth Todd, Chad Lewis, and Matthew Richardson encourage readers to do the important things every day that will help us stand strong and give us power over those things that seek to detract from our happiness as individuals and families.
