Sophia Morcant is no ordinary young woman. She works for the President of the United States. But she's losing her edge, and a huge slip up on her last mission ends with her second in command dead. On a forced leave of absence, Sophia struggles with the horrific things she's done for her country. And then the nightmares begin.

When Sophia meets up with a handsome businessman, she starts on a path of self-discovery and soon learns about her incredible ancestors, including a Druid priestess. Her nightmares shift to memories of this priestess, and Sophia quickly discovers that schemes that were carried out during the first century are playing out again in the White House. She has to stop them.

Will she be able stop the past from replaying itself in time to save the nation?
