Blood Moon (The Sinclair Pack Book 2) M.A. Grant

The sequel to the critically acclaimed Red Moon, about a playboy werewolf, his shy roommate, the ties that bind and a battle for true love.

Dana Patterson never regretted the simplicity of her life in Alaska until she moved in with playboy Connor Sinclair. On the surface, Connor is the darkly seductive owner of Vegas's hottest new casino. But in private, she gets to see a vulnerable side that no one else knows about — and the combination makes him a temptation she isn't willing to resist any longer.

After Connor openly sides with his brother Flynn in the battle against their unstable lycanthrope father, protecting family and friends becomes a necessity. Having Dana move in with him was the chivalrous decision; sharing his bed with her was not. Dana may think Connor's everything she's ever wanted, but his scars run deep, and he can't bear the thought of hurting her.

But war changes everything — and exposes dark secrets. As Rupert's true plans come to light, Connor must decide whether he is truly the monster his father created, or the man Dana knows is hidden within the beast.
