Fragmentos de Frankfurt (Spanish Edition) Stefan Gandler

El Instituto de Investigaciones Sociales - Institut für Sozialforschung - fundado, contra toda lógica universitaria dominante en la Alemania de 1922 en la ciudad de Frankfurt am Main, fue un proyecto único en el siglo XX, un intento por entender la actual sociedad capitalista y sus contradicciones. A partir de distintas ópticas disciplinarias, logró unir a filósofos, sociólogos, historiadores, economistas, especialistas en derecho y psicólogos, con una pregunta clave: ¿cómo era posible que la forma de reproducción capitalista, a pesar de su obvia disfuncionalidad, siguiera existiendo y tuviera cada vez más apoyo popular?

Fragmentos de Frankfurt trata de recuperar el impulso original de la Teoría crítica en cinco ensayos en torno al pensamiento de Horkheimer, Adorno, Benjamin, Marcuse y la historia posterior del Institut für Sozialforschung, fundado en 1922, retomando y reinterpretando, en el contexto del siglo XXI, sus conceptos de modernidad, identidad, Estado, historia, dialéctica y el antisemitismo como expresión de los límites de la ilustración.
