Una acompañante en Nueva York (Grandes Novelas) (Spanish Edition) Laura Moriarty

Inspirada por la vida de la estrella del cine mudo Louise Brooks, esta es la historia de dos mujeres que representan dos mundos opuestos, y del verano que cambió su vida.

Escrita con un estilo exquisito y ambientada en una época fascinante, esta novela juega con la realidad y la ficción para crear una emocionante historia de dos mujeres que comparten los mismos deseos de libertad y realización personal.

Una futura estrella del cine mudo y la mujer que la acompaña a Nueva York, en los vertiginosos años veinte. (Novela contemporánea)

En 1922, la arrebatadora y precoz Louise Brooks, de tan solo quince años, y su acompañante, Cora Carlisle, una mujer casada muy tradicional, viajan juntas desde Wichita, Kansas, a Nueva York, la nueva metrópolis de moda. Cada una tiene sus propios motivos para hacer ese viaje: la rebelde Louise se ha inscrito en la academia de danza vanguardista Denishawn, porque sueña con llegar a ser una famosa bailarina. Una ilusión que cumplirá de largo, convirtiéndose en una conocida actriz del cine mudo y en la mujer más deseada del Hollywood de la época. Por su parte, Cora no solo busca escapar de la monotonía de su vida, sino que quiere cumplir un deseo que lleva años postergando: encontrar sus orígenes, ya que nunca ha conocido a sus padres. Obligadas a pasar juntas un verano en la fascinante y caleidoscópica ciudad de Nueva York, estas dos mujeres aprenderán a entenderse y descubrirán que la vida les tiene servadas muchas sorpresas.

«Esta novela atraparé tanto a los amantes del jazz de la década de 1920, como a los lectores apasionados por las novelas históricas.» —Library Journal
