Etienne De Greeff (1898-1961): Psychiatre, criminologue et romancier (Crimen) (French Edition) Joris Casselman

« L'homme ne se connaît pas » était une devise d'Étienne De Greeff. Comme psychiatre, criminologue et romancier, il nous a légué une œuvre originale et visionnaire. Ce livre donne une réponse à deux questions : qui était Étienne De Greeff et quelle est la signification de son œuvre pour la psychiatrie, la criminologie et la littérature actuelle?

La première partie du livre est entièrement consacrée à l'histoire fascinante et quelquefois dramatique de sa vie. Il s'agit d'une reconstruction minutieuse basée sur des interviews, l'étude de plusieurs archives, de ses propres publications ainsi que de celles le concernant et de nombreuses visites d'endroits qui étaient importants pour lui. Étienne De Greeff est progressivement rendu vivant comme humaniste personnaliste passionné, comme une personne particulièrement intelligente et aimable, qui ne mâchait pas ses mots en exprimant ses idées.

La signification actuelle de son œuvre impressionnante, originale et visionnaire est élucidée dans la seconde partie du livre. Son plaidoyer pour l'humain en l'homme est hautement d'actualité dans un monde psychiatrique dominé par les neurosciences et une pratique criminologique qui navigue au compas de l'approche evidence based. Il a développé une approche de l'homme d'inspiration phénoménologique et psychodynamique en gardant une base biologique solide. Comme criminologue il est devenu mondialement connu pour l'examen interdisciplinaire de la personne et la description de processus criminogènes.
