A Gripping Novel about Overcoming Tragedy and Discovering True Love.

Mallory Taylor has every reason to believe that her life is close to perfect. With a temple marriage to Brad, her handsome, attentive husband, and a darling toddler, she's living the LDS dream. Until one dark night, when a self-inflicted gunshot ends Brad's life and shatters her world forever. How could this have happened, and why? Is it her fault, and will she ever be able to forgive herself - or him?

Time passes, and love again finds its way into Mallory's heart. But will the depth of her feelings be enough to banish the ghosts of past heartaches, allowing her to begin a new life with Thomas, the man she loves? And will their faith in the promises of the gospel give them the strength to make eternal commitments - even without being sealed together during their mortal lives? Many years earlier, another couple - Michael and Emily Hamilton - had struggled with the same dilemma. And now, in a dramatic and unforgettable meeting, Michael and Emily share personal and spiritual insights that make all the difference in Mallory and Thomas's relationship.

For Love Alone, by the LDS market's #1 best-selling romance author, is an extraordinary novel that will touch and move you on many different levels.

As you come to know its memorable characters and their unique challenges, you'll better understand how the power of true love overcomes obstacles and changes lives for the better.
