La protezione internazionale dei dati personali è al centro del dibattito politico, economico e giuridico. Dal 2013 l'Assemblea generale dell'ONU ha adottato due risoluzioni sul "diritto alla privacy nell'età digitale", l'OCSE ha aggiornato le sue Linee guida, mentre nuovi casi di violazione dei diritti umani relativi all'uso dei dati personali sono stati sottoposti alla Corte europea dei diritti umani e alla Corte di giustizia dell'UE nonché ai giudici nazionali.

Il libro affronta l'argomento a tutto campo, soffermandosi in particolare sulla raccolta indiscriminata di dati personali, soprattutto online, sulle (ancora scarse) tutele che la contrastano, sui rimedi messi a disposizione sia dal diritto internazionale sia dal diritto dell'UE.
