This is a how to book. Or a how not to book. Or how to with the peace and release of laughter. It is simply how one husband and wife lived through two sets of twins and two singles in 8 years. It is for you, the busy mom or dad or grannie who was roped in to spending the day with the grans. Let there be laughter. And let there be a pen to record it! It is written so that the busy caregiver can swap 5 minutes of her day to read and laugh at one of the misadventures, and then sneak 5 minutes to write her own story. Because memories fade and the things children do and say are crazy enough and precious enough to keep forever.
