In part 3 of That Unbreakable Love, the kids are back and better than ever. Witnessing the up and down between their parents didn't stop Ray'Shun, Shaniyah and Destiny from wanting to share the same type of Unbreakable Love as Ronny and Shan.

The idea that Trinity has moved on with her life and the possibility of her loving someone other than Ray'Shun has him bitter, heartbroken, and angry at the world. He is determined to get his girl back at any cost. But with his mother in her ear, Trinity isn't trying to hear any more of what she assumed to be lying promises from Ray'Shun. Will the new guy mess up to the point where he leaves room for Ray'Shun to regain his girl? Or will Trinity mean it when she says that her and Ray'Shun will never be together again?

Shaniyah is still trying to get her family to see that Kush isn't so bad once they get to know him. But is her going so hard for him really worth it?

Destiny and Man are finally coming to terms with being teen parents. However, the childishness of their mothers, Shaniqua and Robyn, makes it difficult for Man to see the baby. Will those two come around and put their differences aside for the sake of their kids and granddaughter, or will Shaniqua push Robyn to take matters into her own hands?
