For some marriages, the only time couples touch each other is either in physical abuse or sex. Affection is lost in the marriage. Every marriage has some issues that need to be addressed. Unfortunately, inactions or wrong actions of many couples have caused a number of these issues to remain unresolved or protract for a very long time. The woman with the issue of blood in Luke 8 did not allow herself to be contained by her situation but overcame public ridicule and shame and pressed through the crowd to touch Jesus. Life is in the blood, and if you ever feel that the life of your marriage is being sucked away, know that you have an issue of blood. A desire to touch your spouse emotionally will stir up passion and eventually kindle a beautiful marriage. Touch Me, Honey is a book that will help bring you back to that place. It discusses five ways of touching your spouse in a more significant and memorable way.
