What allows some people to reach great heights of success, while others with similar talents and resources never make it to the top? Find out which aspects of your life determine your greatness, and how you can cultivate these to leave your legacy.

The School of Greatness is a book of techniques you can practice in your personal and professional life to be more successful in everything that you do. Talent alone is simply not enough for anyone to achieve great success and maintain it. Learn how to take control of your habits and setbacks, your mindset and your relationships, in order to overcome or eliminate your greatest obstacles.

You will learn:

- How to develop a specific vision of your goals that will help you determine exactly what you need to do to achieve success
- How to develop the positive habits that will help you to reach greatness
- What it means to be a hustler, and why this attitude is essential in all areas of your life.
