"I had a regular comedy career going, but nothing like what "The Howard Stern Show" has done for me. Everything I have since then I owe to Howard. It makes you sort of a rock star. Before I couldn't sell out a 500 seat theatre; now I can sell out a 3,000 seat theatre," says Artie Lange. This book is a collection of essential interviews with Artie Lange, easily the most forthcoming comedian in the world. Anyone who has read his first tome 'Too Fat To Fish' knows his secrets are few. Serving as a companion to that phenomenal best-seller, ARTIE LANGE THE INTERVIEWS spans Lange's MADtv era and his early days on The Howard Stern Show all the way through to the press surrounding "It's The Whisky Talkin'" and "Beer League" and up until the end of 2008, arguably his most successful year yet. The media interactions you're about to read are as compelling, inspiring and hysterically funny as any ever put to print. This book is a must for all of Artie's devoted fans.
