Deadly Games: Kids Who Kill Kids Gabrielle O'Reilly, Liz Frame

This book provides a detailed look at some of the most sinister and dangerous children who have ever lived, and the consequences of their actions.

These chilling true accounts of kids who have killed other kids, span throughout time and across nations.

Inspired by the horrifying murder of 2-year-old James Bulger by two 10-year-olds, the authors examine cases from Australia and around the world, including the shockingly frequent US school shootings, showing that this taboo topic is by no means a modern phenomenon.
