Del río de la plata a tenerife (Escala en Tenerife) (Spanish Edition) Paolo Mantegazza

La literatura de viajes de Paolo Mantegazza es extensísima. Escribió sobre Cerdeña, Madeira, España, la América española y también la obra que aquí presentamos, dada a luz por primera vez en 1867, y que ha sido objeto de numerosas reediciones en italiano, y en español en lo concerniente a la parte americana. Podemos fechar la arribada de Paolo Mantegazza a Tenerife, por sus propias declaraciones, en 1858, ya que la situó un año después de la estancia en la isla del científico Herman Schacht, acaecida en 1857. Su llegada a Tenerife es de capital interés por plantear el debatido tema de las leyes de cuarentena ante los riesgos de epidemia y la existencia de lazaretos. Ante el anuncio de cualquiera de ellas en las zonas tropicales afectadas, los barcos tenían prohibida la entrada a puerto. Sin embargo las influencias de un señor ante el gobernador civil de Canarias permitían que unos pocos escogidos pudieran arribar a la Isla y efectuar la obligatoria escala en el lazareto del barrio del Cabo santacrucero con el fin de pasar los días preceptivos para demostrar que no se hallaban infectados de fiebre amarilla. Mantegazza relata su estancia en el lazareto y el alto coste de su subsistencia, sufragando incluso a su celador.
